NOTES

BEFORE THE ALLOCATION DAY COMMENCES Bidders should read the Determination and take whatever advice they need. Bidders may wish to read the Applicant Information Package that has been published by the ACA.

AT THE AUCTION BIDDERS SHOULD:

- BRING this original Form with them together with evidence of the bidder's identity. Only the person named at [A] above can use this Form to register as a bidder.
Acceptable identification is either:
 - (a) Photographic drivers licence or Passport; or
 - (b) two forms of other suitable identification such as a birth certificate or credit card, one of which contains a signature.
- PRESENT themselves for bidder registration formalities in adequate time. After the registration period is closed it cannot be re-opened and no further bidder registrations can be accepted.
- FOLLOW the instructions provided by ACA staff at the allocation venue.

IF IDENTIFIED BY THE AUCTIONEER AS THE HIGHEST BIDDER, BIDDERS WILL NEED TO:

- MOVE immediately to the area identified by the auctioneer to identify himself or herself; AND
- GIVE THE ACA the 10% deposit by bank cheque or a signed undertaking to pay the deposit immediately after a successful applicant has been identified for all lots.

DEFAULT IN ALLOCATION PROCEDURES WILL, SUBJECT TO THE DETERMINATION, LEAD TO EXCLUSION OF THE APPLICANT. THE AMOUNT OF THE DEPOSIT WILL BE FORFEITED AND DAMAGES MAY BE PURSUED BY THE ACA.

This Form has been approved pursuant to section 2.4 of the Determination.
